SUBJECT: GUATEMALA TO SUPPORT ARGENTINA'S REQUEST FOR INTERPOL APPROVAL OF RED NOTICES

REF: STATE 147320

Classified By: Ambassador James M. Derham for reason 1.4 (b&d)

(S) Guatemala's INTERPOL representative, Benigno Barraja, informed Embassy NAS Officer that Guatemala would join a Central American consensus position in support of Argentina's request for approval of six red notices at the Interpol General Assembly meeting in November. Argentine DCM Enrique Vaca welcomed the USG's assistance, and told Pol/Econ Couns that the Guatemalan Foreign Ministry and Ministry of Government, in addition to Barraja, had committed to supporting Argentina at the Interpol General Assembly. Vaca said he also understood that there is Central American consensus in support of the Argentine position.
